WAS AT VERA CRUZ. William Higgins of U. S. S. New Hampshire Had Thrilling Experi-

William Higgins, a member of the crew of the U. S. S. New Hampshire, is in this city for a short visit with his uncle, William E. Higgins of Francis street. Higgins is on a furlough of thirty days. His ship having returned to this country from Vera Cruz recently, is now at Norfolk, Va., for repairs. He at one time lived in Willimantic and attended the Natchaug school. Many interesting stories are related by Mr. Higgins of the events around Vera Cruz at the time of martial rule there. He stood very near Private Delaney of New York, who was shot by snipers on the second day of the occupation of the city. Most of Mr. Higgins' furlough will be spent with his mother, Mrs. John McCormick of Pawtucket; R. I.

Clerks' Half-Holiday. Thursday afternoon was the second in the summer series of half-holidays for the clerks in the local stores, and the city streets were pretty well dethe city streets were pretty well deserted in the afternoon. It was a hot, suitry day, and the holiday was greatly enjoyed for that reason. Coming at the same time as the annual outing of the Business Men at Storrs, there were not many of that number was one of the dullest in some which was one of the dullest in some time in this city. The Boston Store was open all day, however.

To Attend Automobile Convention. Fred D. Jordan and his son. Roland. of the Jordan Auto company, left Thursday morning for Detroit, Michigan, and Flint. While away they will attend the convention of agents of one of the cars sold by the company, and visit the factories of two others, so that business will be combined with pleasure in the trip.

ost perfect health, but owing to contaminated water and milk, unripe fruit, germs and insects the average of health is not good at this time of the years. There is much skin trouble from acid fruits, and much dyspepsia and diarrhoea from cold foods and iced beverages.

The skin trouble is easily stopped by discontinuing fruit for a few days and by the use of a mild laxative to and by the use of a mild laxative to clean the bowels and tone the blood. The dyspepsia is likewise corrected by the use of a laxative that has combined with it the elements of a digestive tonic. Hence the best remedy to use is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which, as its name indicates, is a pleasant laxative combined with the virtues of pepsin, which we all know is the best cure for indigestion.
